IMPORTANT DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT red out, in connection with our commercial elations with California, are likely to be reme-

It will not have escaped the recollection of ur readers, that the schooner Caroline left this ort, last fall, for San Francisco, having a cargo syrup, potatoes, &c., owned and produced by dr. L. L. Torbert, of Honuaula, Maui. The rup was invoiced at 15cts. per gallon, this ing as he thought, the cost of manufacture, On arriving at San Francisco, the Custom louse Officers appraised the syrup at 37 icts. er gallon; and the Collector fined him 20 per ent, on the ENTIRE cargo, for making, as he he Collector,) supposed, a FALSE invoice.

The invoice of Mr. Torbert had been sworn before the American Consul, at Lahaina, Mr unker; and thus his oath, and the Consular ertificate, were rendered of no effect. Happily decision of the Supreme Court is directly in int ; the act of the Collector, in assessing adrecovered. "The instructions of the S.crey of the Treasury do not justify the Collector making illegal exactions, nor protect him from t by the importer." "The invoice and oath of fair importer, are the best test of the value the goods."

The Bill of Mr. Hunter, which would deprive importer of the benefit of these decisions d passed the Senate, but we have yet to learn t it has passed the House of Representatives, d become a law. We trust it has not ; for very good reason that it would have a most rious effect upon the shipping of our domesproductions to California, by the growers and
